

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Wireless Router) is powered by host PC and connected with PC (WAN port) and notebook (LAN port) through RJ45 port. The antenna used is dual monopole and should be rotated vertically when operation. Under normal use condition, the device should be placed at least 20 cm far away from the user or nearby person.

The other instruction, please have a look at the users manual.