

Label & Location

Inside the battery box.

Note: 15.19 statements will be placed on a removable label attached to the device

This product complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This product may not cause harmful interference and (2) this product must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operations.