

Operational Description

This equipment is a bi-directional repeater designed for operation in the 800 – 900 MHz SMR bands. It is used for in-building signal enhancement. For a detailed technical and operational description please refer to the installation and operating instructions.