

Operational Description

Two samples were provided to this model with different frequency due to different crystals used. The transmitter, of the EUT (Wireless Mouse) are powered by 3V Battery. The receivers are powered by host computer. Both transmitter and receiver use printed Antenna. The output power of this device is very low. Under normal use condition, the transmitter and the receiver are quite close, so high EIRP power is neither necessary nor allowed because of interference.