

FCC ID is built in parameter setting in the device software code, users can't change the setting.

