

Justification for no antenna gain information

FCC ID: 2BLG4-SOMA

As the antenna connected to the 60-62.5 GHz transmitter is integral and the output power is measured as an EIRP, antenna gain information is, therefore, not required. Only radiated measurements are used to show compliance with the FCC limits for fundamental and spurious emissions.