

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: --Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna. 3. Copy and transfer music files FCC Warning (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver. --Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from (2) this device must accept any interference received, Specific Absorption Rate (SAR) information SAR tests including interference that may cause undesired operation. that to which the receiver is connected. are conducted using standard operating positions accepted by the FCC with the phone transmitting atits Any Changes or modifications not expressly approved by -Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV highest certified power level in all tested frequency bands, the party responsible for compliance could void the user's technician for help although the SAR is determined at the highest certified authority to operate the equipment. power level, the actual SAR level of the phone while Note: This equipment has been tested and found tocomply operating can be well below the maximum value, with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to part in general, the closer you are to a wireless base station 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide Quick Starter Guide antenna, the lower the power output. reasonable protection against harmful interference in a Before a new model phone is a available for sale to the 4. Enjoy the audio player residential installation. This equipment generates uses and public, it must be tested and certified to the FCC that it does not exceed the exposure limit established by the FCC can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and Tests for each phone are performed in positions and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful 5. 3D stereo sound locations (e.g. at the ear and worn on the body)as required interference to radio communications. However, there is no by the FCC. For body worn operation, this mobile phone guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular has been tested and meets the FCC RF exposure guidelines installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference when used with an accessory designated for this product to radio or television reception, which can be determined by or when used with an accessory that contains no metal and turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to that positions the handset a minimum of 10mm from the body. try to correct the interference by one or more of the following