Subject: Declaration of OEM Integration Manual
FCC ID: PKRISGRM4210

To Whom It May Concern,

We, Inseego Corp., state that Inseego RM4210 LGA WWAN Radio Module is Not For Sale and the User Manual Integration Instructions are Internal Confidential Manufacturing Documents. Inseego's usage of the Radio Modules will be only in our own Host Products, completely concealed within the Host Device and Not Serviceable by the User once integrated into their Host Platforms. Inseego doesn't have any intention to sell to market the RF Radio Module as is.

Sincerely,
