

Description of Operation

The Martec Doorminder DM-3003 is a garage door safety transmitter. It operates at 303 MHz and is mechanically activated through a motion sensor on the PCB. When the device is shaking (when the garage door is moving) the DUT transmits repetitively to a nearby receiver indicating that the garage door is in motion. When the garage door ceases motion, the DUT no longer transmits.