Application Cover Letter

FCC ID: 2ABBZ-RF-ARGB

CINCH Systems is applying for original certification to FCC Part 15 Subpart C §15.231 for Model RF-ARGB glass break. The wireless communication interface with a security panel is regarded as a proprietary security protocol.

The following model numbers are associated with this application:

- RF-ARGB
- QS1431-840

The radios in all two models are electrically identical. The differences in the models are the company model naming format. Cinch systems Inc. uses RF-ARGB model number and Qolsys Inc. uses QS1431-840 model number. Schematic, microcontroller, RF chip, matching circuit, frequency, crystal and enclosure for both model number are the same.

Yours sincerely,
