Subject: Class II Permissive Change due to small change on front cover mesh and brand on it.

Please carry out FCC C2PC to the existing Grant / Certification for our Radio Terminal as described in the above subject for the following product:

- FCC ID: CASTWXNFA

Original Grant Date:2022-01-28

This C2PC is based on to FCC §2.1043, and it is intended to file a new variant under the above product certification.

Except for the front mesh design and Kenwood brand everything else is exactly the same.

Top-up EMC and RF exposure test reports were produced by an accredited laboratory and no degradation was found.
