This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

1. This device may not cause harmful interference, and
2. this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

The FCC RF Safety Requirement

The radiated output power of Wireless LAN Mini-PCI Adapter is far below the FCC radio frequency exposure limits. Nevertheless, the ThinkPad X22 shall be used in such a manner that the potential for human contact during normal operation is minimized as follows:

- CAUTION: To comply with FCC RF exposure compliance requirements, a separation distance of at least 20 cm (8 inches) must be maintained between the antenna of this device and all persons.

- Please make sure of the following, when you will use a Bluetooth option or wireless PCMCIA card in your ThinkPad.
 1. Please visit the IBM site at www.ibm.com/pc/support and confirm the updated list of RF devices that have been approved to cooperate with the integrated wireless feature.
 2. When you use any other wireless option that is not introduced in the IBM site, all other wireless features in your ThinkPad are required to turn off.
 3. Please be careful to follow the RF Safety instructions of wireless option devices that should be indicated in each users manual.

Interference Statement

An improper installation or unauthorized use may cause harmful interference to radio communications. Also any tampering of the internal antenna will void the FCC certification and your warranty. Refer to the "Electronic emission notices" in the manual.
