Dear Diane Poole:

Please note the following response and comments.

1. Past filed Test Report contained combined test results for Receiver and Peripheral Device. It appears FCC may want to see these two test results separated. Attached, find this test report separated and amended to reflect: (1) one report is for Class B Computing Device Peripheral and tests were performed in accordance with C63.4, Section 11, and (2) the other report is for Receiver and tests were performed in accordance with C63.4, Section 12
2. Attached find composite label with FCC ID and FCC DoC logo.
3. The User Manual will be amended to add the following DoC information. If needed, the finalized User Manual will be sent later when it becomes available:
