

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Wireless Keyboard) is powered by 3Vdc Batteries. The receiver is powered by host equipment. Both transmitter and receiver use Loop Antenna. The output power of this device is very low. Under normal use condition, the transmitter and the receiver are quite close, so high EIRP power is neither necessary nor allowed because of interference.