

Proxfinity, Inc.
222 W. Merchandise Mart
Chicago, IL
60654

September 24, 2015

Dear Madam/Sir,

Proxfinity, Inc. is requesting Long Term Confidentiality on three documents submitted with its filing for FCC approval of its product model PinV10. Release of these three documents to the public could seriously impact our competitive position in the marketplace and jeopardize our business. This information is confidential and proprietary information of Proxfinity, Inc. This information has not been disclosed publicly and has only been disclosed to certain parties subject to signed Non Disclosure Agreements.

The three documents we request Long Term Confidentiality are:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1) Schematics of PinV10 | file: SchematicsPinV10.pdf |
| 2) Block diagram of PinV10 | file: BlockDiagramPinV10.pdf |
| 3) Technical Description of PinV10 | file: TechnicalDescriptionPinV10.pdf |

It is our understanding that under Section 0.457(d) and Section 0.459 requests for Long Term Confidentiality for these types of materials are permitted, and we therefore request this treatment.

Regards,

Michael Howells
Chief Technology Officer
mike@proxfinity.com
408-205-6902