An administrative review of this application filing shows that the required imposed fee has been paid and verified. You are requesting long term confidentiality of internal photos. There is an asterisk indicated with a box unchecked next to the internal photo listings. Are you requesting long term confidentiality of internal photos or even if long term confidentiality of the user manual, before administrative review is completed, a Non-Disclosure Agreement must be provided to the FCC on company's letter head, signed and dated. For further guidance on this procedure please review FCC Publication No. 726920 dated 12/3/2012 noted on the World Wide Web.

REPLY:

Long term confidentiality is not required for both internal photos and user manual. And further, also short term confidentiality is not required for both internal photos and user manual.

That means, no any confidentiality requirement are required for both internal photos and user manual.

Please kindly note.Thank you!
