Re: Cobra Electronics' application for certification for their FCC ID: BBOHH100
Confirmation # EA882378

Dear Ms. Green:

When I submitted the application for certification for the above-mentioned FCC ID, I marked that the applicant was requesting confidentiality. This was an error and the applicant has confirmed to me that they do not wish to request confidentiality on this application.

I paid the fee for the confidentiality so it should be refunded.

Should you have any questions, please advise.
