

Justification for Re-use of Radio Test Results

We, The Procter & Gamble Co., believe that the conducted signal test data on original reports provided by Particle Industries, Inc. (Single Module, FCC ID: 2AEMI-BRN402, approved on 03/13/2019) can be re-used for the following reasons:

1. Applicant has built in the radio module according to the specific radio module integration guides.
2. No changes have been made on radio module except for some functions disabled by software setting.
3. Re-test the Output power for spot check verification.

Conducted signal tests in following reports re-used.
