

>>> From: "Joe Dichoso" <JDICHOSO@fcc.gov> 05/06/2002 04:03 PM
>>> To: <Ken_Addy@pittway.com>
>>> cc:
>>> Subject: Re:
>>>
>>> Ken,
>>> OK just submit this via the filing.
>>> Thanks,
>>> Joe

>> <Ken_Addy@pittway.com> 05/06/02 12:36PM
>>
>> Joe,
>> the only device that initiates a data message per 15.231e) >> is the 5883 (FCC ID: CFS8DL5883). The software within the >> 5883 prevents it from sending messages which do not meet the >> silent period requirement of 15.231e). Therefore the initiating >> source of the message, which is repeated by the 5800RP repeater, >> is compliant with the rule, and since the repeater only repeats >> the originating message, then it too meets the requirement.
>> regards,
>> Ken Addy

> oetech@fccsun34w.fcc.gov
> To: Ken Addy/ADEMC0/Pittway@PittwayNotes
> cc:
> 05/03/2002 01:31 PM
> Subject:
> To: Ken Addy, Alarm Device Manufacturing Company
> From: Joe Dichoso jdichoso@fcc.gov
> FCC Application Processing Branch
> Re: FCC ID CFS8DL5800RP
> Applicant: Alarm Device Manufacturing Company
> Correspondence Reference Number: 22797
> 731 Confirmation Number: EA423053
>
> For multiple incoming transmissions from units operating under > 15.231(e), how does the device meet the requirement that a silent > period of 30 times the duration or at least 10 seconds? The device > must have some limitation to ensure this. Please explain.