Description: 802.11a/b/g True MIMO Mini PCI Module

Re: Applicability of Data from Previously Granted Device

Description: 802.11a/b/g True MIMO Access Point

FCC ID: SA3-AGN1202AP0000

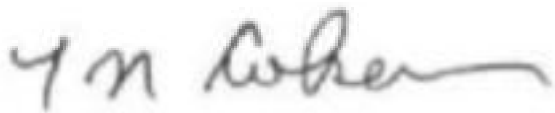

Grant Date: 4 October 2004

To whom it may concern,

The mini pci module referenced above is identical to the mini pci card that was installed in the Access Point granted in October. As such, previous data for antenna conducted data and AC line conducted data are applicable to and representative of emissions that would be expected from the EUT alone. A copy of the previously submitted data are included as exhibits in the referenced application.

☐ If you have questions or need further information, please contact the undersigned.
