Quick Facts: REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIALITY

[Reference Document: FCC KDB 726920 D01 Confidentiality Request Procedures v01r02]¹

In general, the FCC will hold information confidential if it is not routinely made available to the public. Information granted confidentiality must be justified by submitting a Confidentiality Request Letter as an exhibit uploaded with the equipment authorization application.

A request for confidentiality must be indicated in Item 8 of the FORM 731 and a letter making specific request for confidentiality must accompany the application as a separate exhibit.

Exhibit types that are commonly held long-term confidential (permanently) are:

- schematic diagrams
- detailed block diagrams
- detailed operational descriptions
- parts lists
- tune up procedures (if applicable).

Exhibit types that can be held short-term confidential (max. 180 days) are:

- External photos
- Internal photos**
- Test setup photos
- User's manual**

 Internal photos and user's manual exhibits, while not typically held confidential, may be eligible for long confidentiality in exceptional circumstances. Additional justification must be provided according KDB726920:

- Internal Photos / User's Manuals

A TCB shall not authorize any Long-Term or Short-Term Confidentiality for exhibits except as permitted above, unless it has been approved by the Commissions under the TCB Pre-approval guidance (PAG) procedure (See KDB Publication Number: 388624).

An applicant may first request confidentiality under an exceptional circumstance directly to the Commission by submitting an inquiry.

Decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis. If the Commission approves a request, then the applicant must have the TCB submit a separate TCB PAG referencing this initial inquiry.

Exceptional circumstances may include but are not limited to:

- 1) Reinstating confidentiality for a recently expired Short-Term Confidentiality exhibit.
- 2) Making an exhibit(s) confidential that is currently publicly available but that qualifies for Long-Term Confidentiality.
- 3) Requesting exhibits not eligible for Long-Term Confidentiality (see table above) to be held Long-Term Confidential.

If the inquiry request is approved the inquiry tracking number shall be entered in the appropriate field on the Form 731 application.

When a confidentiality request is approved, the information marked as confidential will not be publicly available on the FCC equipment authorization web site. Exhibits will remain confidential:

- 1) in accordance with the type of confidentiality requested;
- 2) until the applicant files a request to remove confidentiality; or
- 3) if a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for inspection is filed and approved based on the requirements of § 0.461.

The FCC has a procedure to handle confidential items and any request will be delivered to the FCC for them to decide if it can be held in confidence (PAG procedure).
