A black cable with a square antenna and a connector, placed next to a ruler for scale. The cable is coiled and has a black square antenna at one end and a yellow connector at the other. A ruler is placed horizontally below the cable, showing measurements in centimeters and millimeters. The antenna is positioned near the 10 cm mark, and the connector is near the 200 cm mark. The cable is coiled between the 100 cm and 200 cm marks.
