

"In section 11 of the SAR report the separation distance between the phone antenna and the closest E-field probe location is erroneously stated as 1.85 inches, this distance should have read 1.16 inches, the number 1.85 was a typographical error."