

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Wireless Transceiver) is powered 5V by host equipment. The type of antenna is Loop antenna. The output power of this device is very low. Under normal use condition, the transmitter and the receiver are quite close, so high EIRP power is neither necessary nor allowed because of interference.