

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Wireless Optical Mouse) is powered by 3V Battery. The receiver is powered by host computer. Both transmitter and receiver use printed antenna. The output power of this device is very low. Under normal use condition, the transmitter and the receiver are quite close, so high EIRP power is neither necessary nor allowed because of interference.