

November 26, 2003

RE: Telematics Wireless Ltd.

FCC ID: NTAFP100RA

Output Power Control

The output power range of the reader is -20 dBm to +27 dBm and is software controllable.

Technical personnel only via the maintenance port of the reader do the output power calibration.

The procedure is performed using special software that needs authorization by a password.