Re: Application for Cellular/PCS Transceiver Certification, Class II Permissive Change

To Whom It May Concern:

Kyocera Wireless Corporation (KWC) herein submits the Application for Class II Permissive Change Certification of Cellular/PCS Transceiver, FCC ID: OVFKWC-KE4X4.

Description of Change:
Model KE434 is added to the family of product models under FCC ID: OVFKWC-KE4X4. KE4X4 is identical to the previous certified phones model KE414 and KE424C in electrical, PCB, antenna and back housing design. The only different is the front housing cosmetic design and front housing SAR metal bracket.

The following Report/information are attached:

- External and internal photos
- Part 22/24 report with Radiated Emissions and Block-Edge compliance data
- Radiated Spurious Emission Reports
- SAR Reports
