

The image shows a template for the back of a CD case. It features a central rectangular area with a blue border, intended for a label. Above this area, there is a semi-circular notch on the left and two square punch holes on the right. Below the central area, there is a semi-circular notch on the right and a rectangular notch on the left.

Back label