The image shows a custom-designed printed circuit board (PCB) for a microcontroller. The PCB is black with a central circular cutout. It features a digital display showing '015'. Various components are labeled, including D15, D16, D17, D18, D19, D20, D21, D9, D14, and D16. A ruler is placed below the PCB for scale, showing measurements in centimeters and inches.
