Subject: User's Manual update

Dear sir :

IBM would like to revise the user's manual for an improvement of usability.
We guide the FCC grant conditions to users with our Web site regarding the use of multiple transmitters on the granted IBM PCs.
But it's difficult for users to search the target page via the current URL in the manual.
So the URL will be replaced soon with the appropriate one as shown in the attachment.

Sincerely, October 31, 2001
