

Label and Label Location Information

1. Labels:

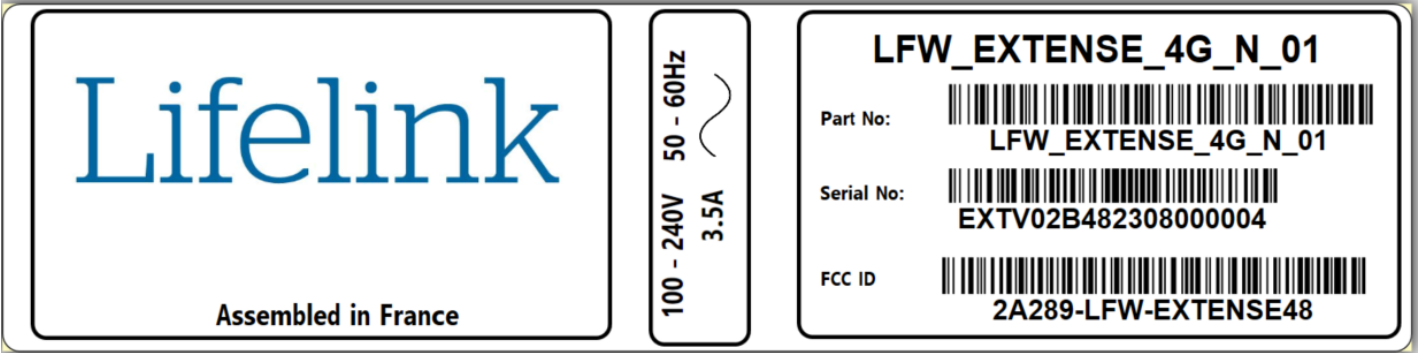

The label is permanently affixed in the equipment. The label data is indelibly printed or permanently marked on a permanently attached part of the equipment enclosure. This data or required information of the equipment is permanently marked on a nameplate made of strong bonding permanent adhesive. The adhesive is made to last the expected lifetime of the equipment in the environment in which the equipment will be operated and is not be readily detachable.

2. Label in RadioHead:

Location of Label

3. Label in Extense:

Location of Label

