

1. Use touch to select settings in the following main interface .

2. After entering Settings, select Information to see the FCC ID number and statement as shown below.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules.
Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.