

Note:

The battery compartment door is not detachable. There is intentional interference with the outer cover where once assembled as shipped to a customer, the battery door cannot be removed.

The reason for this design feature is to prevent loss of the battery door.