To whom this may concern,

The label information is stored in the Arlo DoorBell AAD1001 device and not on the generic Arlo App for Arlo product family.

The Arlo App merely displays the label information provided by the device.

There is no label information in the Arlo App.

Please do not hesitate to contact your local Arlo representative for any additional information.

Respectfully,
