

Figure 1.3.1 Representation of FCC Label information

This label will be placed on the equipment within the compartment shown below (under battery). Other information may also be included on this label, and other labels may also be present. The label shall not block the vent hole including the machines recess around it (outer diameter as shown in the picture)

Figure1.3.2: Location of FCC Label (position, orientation, and other information shown may vary).