Family Certification request letter

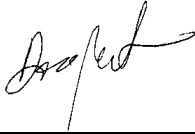

We hereby request Family Certification for the above mentioned HVINs/Models based on them being electrically, and physically identical apart from model name/number and the differences mentioned below:

1. Models IQPanel5, IQ5Hub and IQ5NS are using the same motherboard PCB assembly/layout QB9501 Rev. OA housed in the same plastic enclosure. Model IQPanel5 is the fully populated model.
2. Model IQ5Hub is identical in construction and functionality with IQPanel5 and the only differences are related to removal of the following components:
 - a. The 800p Touch Panel Display is replaced by a 600p Touch Panel Display.
 - b. One of the two speakers and the audio power amplifier that drives it are deleted.
 - c. The camera and its main board connector are deleted.
 - d. The light sensor is deleted.
 - e. One of two microphones is deleted.
3. Model IQ5NS is identical in construction and functionality with IQPanel5 and the only differences are related to removal of the following components:
 - a. The Touch Panel Display and associated power supplies and connectors are deleted.
 - b. One of the two speakers and the audio power amplifier that drives it are deleted.
 - c. The camera and its main board connector are deleted.
 - d. The light sensor is deleted.
 - e. Both microphones are deleted
3. Model IQPanel5, IQ5Hub and IQ5NS use the same RF circuitry for the Power G and Z-Wave interface with the same antenna type.

The models IQPanel5, IQ5Hub and IQ5NS as described above have been tested separately for each configuration.

Sincerely,
