

FCC ID: BY3065-48P
This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following conditions:
1. This device must not cause harmful interference.
2. This device must accept any interference, including that from authorized radio transmitters.
3. This device must not be used in conjunction with any other device.
4. This device must be used in accordance with the instructions provided in the user manual.
5. This device must be used in accordance with the instructions provided in the user manual.
6. This device must be used in accordance with the instructions provided in the user manual.
7. This device must be used in accordance with the instructions provided in the user manual.
8. This device must be used in accordance with the instructions provided in the user manual.
9. This device must be used in accordance with the instructions provided in the user manual.
10. This device must be used in accordance with the instructions provided in the user manual.

