To Whom It May Concern,

Attached is HTC Corporation's application for certification of HTC Corporation ("HTC"), Model Number: 2PYV200. Please note that because we have not yet finalized the user documentation for this device, the User Manual and Safety and Regulatory Guide included with this application are in draft form. HTC will finalize this documentation before the device is made commercially available, and the final version of the manual will be made available to consumers. The final versions of the documentation will comply with all applicable labeling and user manual requirements. The final User Manual, Safety and Regulatory Guide will be included in the packaging with the device.

Please contact us at the addresses specified in Annex A if you have any questions regarding the documentation or our application generally.

Sincerely,

Elyse Chang / Sr. Director

HTC Corporation
