

Back of the EUT

Label is located in the battery compartment. The battery will not be installed in the battery compartment when marketing, therefore, it is visible to the users when they install the battery at the first-time-use.