

From: reports@ckc.com
Sent: Wednesday, August 25, 2004 9:13 AM
To: info@ckccertification.com
Subject: E04-000068-3

Response to E04-000068-3

All hardware in the transmitter section is and has always been capable of going up to and beyond 512 MHz. Modification to software tables in our pll counters enables the radio to conform to the mask requirements at the frequencies between 480 and 512. No modification in hardware was necessary to achieve this frequency extension.